

FAQ

When can I meet with an attorney?

First time clients or clients with new cases should call us between 9 AM and 5 PM, Monday through Friday, for an intake interview.

What if you cannot take my case?

If we cannot take your case due to high caseload or limited resources, we will do our best to make appropriate referrals to trusted legal and social service agencies.

Is there a fee for your services?

There may be a $25 consultation fee for immigration cases. If we are able to accept your case, we may charge a minimal fee, depending on the type of service provided. However, no one will be denied services for the inability to pay.

Has the U.S. Congress passed comprehensive immigration reform?

Not at this time. Please contact us to learn more about proposed or existing immigration relief, and be sure to check for regular updates on our website and social media pages!

GET INVOLVED!

Since its establishment in 1999, Maxwell Street Legal Clinic has served clients from over 100 countries. We help hundreds of low-income immigrant and refugee families each year with limited staff and resources.

However, without our many dedicated volunteers and generous benefactors, much of our work would not get done. Thank you for taking an interest in helping alleviate serious hardship for some of the most vulnerable members of our community.

If you would like to make a donation, we thank you and invite you to visit our website for more info. Donations are tax-deductible!

Maxwell Street Legal Clinic is a program of Kentucky Equal Justice Center, a non-profit poverty law advocacy center.
